

The Asian Arts Council
presents

Lecture by Kendall Brown, Ph.D.

Professor of Asian Art History at the Art Department of California State University at Long Beach.
He has two publications coming out in the spring of 2013 on Japanese gardens in North America.

BALBOA PARK
THE SAN DIEGO
MUSEUM OF ART

Top: Hayashi Bunshu (b. 1895) with Gyoza, Shosai, Mikizo (dates unknown), Stationery Box with Pegasus Going to the Sky, 1937. Lacquered wood, silver, gold 13 x 10 x 5 in. Bottom: Artist unidentified, Mon Paris, "Paris March" (Mon pari, pari koshinkyoku), 1928 Color lithograph, 10 1/2 x 7 1/2 in.
Images courtesy of Levenson Collection. The Deco Japan: Shaping Art and Culture, 1920-1945 exhibition, organized and circulated by Art Services
International, Alexandria, VA, is at the Mable Ringling Museum of Art through October 28 - venues available in 2013 and 2015.

Delirious Japan: Deco in War and Peace

Thursday,
October 25
1:00 p.m.
Boardroom

