

Asian Arts Council
presents:

OF PIGS AND PALACES: THE STORY OF PORCELAIN

Meher McArthur,
Independent Asian Art Curator,
Author and Educator

Thursday, May 29,
1:00 p.m.

The origins of porcelain in China, the styles produced for domestic and foreign patrons and the related wares of Korea and Japan.

Clockwise: Porcelain figure of Bodhidharma, China, Ming dynasty, Wanli period (1573-1620), USC Pacific Asia Museum. Porcelain Charger with enamel decoration, Qing dynasty, Qianlong period (1736-95), USC Pacific Asia Museum. Porcelain Dish with underglaze cobalt blue design, China, Qing dynasty, Qianlong period (1736-1795), USC Pacific Asia Museum. Porcelain jar with underglaze cobalt blue design, Japan, Edo period, c.1800, USC Pacific Asia Museum.

AACsdmART.org
Museum Boardroom
BALBOA PARK
THE SAN DIEGO
MUSEUM OF ART